

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The American Technical Education Association is the only national association devoted solely to comprehensive post secondary technical education in technical and community colleges and four-year colleges and universities; and,

WHEREAS, This association has been in existence since 1928 and is an organization incorporated to promote technical education; and,

WHEREAS, New and emerging occupations will require technical training components for American business and industry, making them more competitive in the international marketplace; and,

WHEREAS, This association recommends standards for technical education to upgrade the quality of technical education; and,

WHEREAS, The association provides an opportunity for exchange of ideas among persons in the technical education field and, through its college of consultants, promotes ideas and experiences in the solution of problems common to education, business, and industry by addressing technology issues on curriculum, instruction, production, and governance;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 12 through 18, 1989, as in South Dakota and recognize the American Technical Education Association for their leadership role in business development and economic development.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
